

Chatbot for ESAIP – Project report summary

For

By,

Aravindh JAWAHAR
Saravana Kumar JAISHANKAR

Siddharth RAMESH

MSS September 2021

Guided

by,

MOUTYMBO Charles-Alexis

For course,

Application Project

Semester III

MSS September 2021

Chatbot project Report overview

- + Index

It contains the detailed track of the report to follow through the project as per the business needs and requirements
- + Table of figures

It comprises of tables with pages regarding the figures used in the report to describe the project in business perspective
- + Abstract

The core idea of the project in terms of technical and business will be figured out
- + Introduction

The scope of the project, need for the project and its impact will be figured out in the section
- + Human resources section of the project

It explains the organisation the ESAIP which need the project to use in terms of business to fulfil the needs of the client
- + Requirements collection

The brief explanation of the project in views of users/client to satisfy the needs of the user

 - User requirements

The requirements in terms of user to satisfy the needs has been explained
 - Technical requirements

The technology needs needed to satisfy the project has been figured out
- + Feasibility study

The study measures regarding the project to proceed with the requirements and to achieve the results will be explained
- + Design of chatbot
 - High level design of components

The top level design of the projects is explained in terms of business will be explained with the diagram i.e., architecture diagram with high level documents
 - Low level design of components

The refined details with the components in the deeper level during the implementation has been explained
- + Development of the Chatbot

The technical development and the process followed up will be explained with the process flow of the project and to reach the result
- + Implementation of chatbot to live environment

The migration process of chatbot to the live environment from the development environment will be explained
- + Project plans and execution using agile methodology

The project management methods and the hierarchy will be explained
- + Financial section of the project

The finance section and its impact to the organisation will be figured with the data

- ✚ Course knowledge mapping with the application project
The course which is helpful to do the project is explained in terms of its exigence to the project
- ✚ Appendix
 - References